

TIGER CUB SCOUT

Boys and Girls in First Grade or 7 Years Old

Welcome to the Boy Scouts of America! Tiger Cub Scouts is the beginning of what we hope will become a lasting relationship between your Scout and the Boy Scouts of America.

The Tiger Cub Scout program is designed to meet the needs of some of the youngest members of the BSA. Your Scout will be greatly helped by your enthusiastic participation in the many adult-child activities that are the core of the Tiger Cub Scout program.

This form is designed to give you a closer glimpse into the Tiger Cub Scout program and handbook. For more information, visit www.cubscouts.org.

Your Scout is a Member of a Tiger Den...

- The Tiger den is typically made up of five to eight boys or girls who are in the first grade or seven years old.
- The den meets one to three times a month. One of the den meetings each month is a fun and educational field trip.
- A parent or guardians must accompany their Tiger to all meetings.
- The Tiger den has a den leader, but the den leader shares the planning of the den meetings with the parents or guardians.

Your Scout is a Member of a Cub Scout Pack...

- A pack consists of several dens with boys and girls from the different age groups. The dens meet together once a month for a pack meeting.
- The Cubmaster leads the monthly pack meeting, but each den will have a part in the pack meeting.
- Some months, the pack meeting will have special themes such as Pinewood Derby, Blue & Gold Banquet or guest speakers. Other months may be devoted to recognizing the Scouts for the projects they have completed by the presentation of Adventure loops, Adventure pins, or badges of rank.

TIGER ADVANCEMENT

In Scouting, advancement is the process by which a member meets certain requirements and earns recognition. Boys and girls in Cub Scouting work on advancements with their families and at den meetings.

To advance, Cub Scouts complete Adventures. As these are completed, they are awarded Adventure loops to mark their progress.

- Bobcat (Character / Leadership)
- Tigers in the Wild (Outdoors)
- Tiger Bites (Personal Fitness)
- Team Tiger (Citizenship)
- Tiger Roar (Personal Safety)
- Tiger Circles (Family / Reverence)

Once a Scout completes the requirements for the six required Adventures and at least two elective adventures, they will be eligible to receive their Tiger badge, signifying that they have earned the Tiger rank and can move on to completing more Adventures.

After your Scout has earned the Tiger badge, they can earn more Adventure loops by completing elective Adventures outlined in the handbook. The wide variety of electives help broaden a Scout's horizons and reinforce the aims of Scouting. Electives provide advancement opportunities and recognition for your Scout until they are eligible to begin working on the Wolf rank (boys and girls in second grade or 8 years old).
